

COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT COORDINATOR

VOLUNTEERING POSITION

Mothers to Daughters, a for-impact organization whose focus is to bridge intergenerational gaps amongst women, is currently seeking a Community Engagement Coordinator. Reporting to the Communication and Event Leader.

Opportunity: Be part of our talented team, grow, get exposure through networking within a fast growing for-impact organization.

Weekly Time Commitment: 15 hours per week.

Term: Unlimited

Responsibilities:

- Participate in community events to promote M2D and work with community members to increase participation in our initiatives.
- Build and maintain an excellent communication relationship with our community.
- Post planned content on our social networks and make sure our audience has an exceptional experience on our networks.
- Help implement and manage campaigns on our social networks.
- Follow up on the interests of the M2D community.
- Development of activities to captivate new audiences.
- Other duties, projects, and initiatives as assigned by the Strategic Leader.

Our definition of a good fit:

- Strong verbal and written communication.
- Creative approach to problem solving.
- Research and analysis capacity.
- Being able to maintain the tone and voice of M2D in each message.

If this resonates with you, we want to talk to you! Send in your CV today at info@motherstodaughters.ca. We thank all applicants who apply, but only those selected for an interview will be contacted.